RADFORD, VA., May 25.—Instead of going to the revival services at Grove Avenue Methodist Church, Tuesday night, as they were supposed to have done, Miss Susie Lucas and Mr. Warren Maiden, both of East Radford, sought the shrine of a Bristol parson instead, and came home the following day—man and wife. The youthfulness of the bride was the only objection to maryiage, on the part of the young girl's family, and on telegraphing for permission to return home, and receiving an affirmative reply, the young couple returned Wednesday to the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. R. Ligan, in East Radford, by whom the bride was raised. She was a daughter of the late S. H. W. Lucas, an engineer for the Norfolk and Western, who was killed about three years ago in a wreck. Mr. Maiden is the son of the Rey, and Mrs. G. A. Maiden, the former of whom was presiding elder of Radford District preceding the incumbent. The newly wedded pair left Friday for Norfolk, where they will spent their honeymoun.

The Stinging Tree.

The Stinging Tree.

The stinging tree of Australia somewhat resembles a gigantic nettle. It has an unpleasant odor, and the natives and native animals are careful to avoid it.

When a man is stung by the tree-or, to put it more prosalcally, pricked by the tree's thorn—the little wound gives thin at first no pain whatever. But in a few minutes a maddening pain is set up; the victim shrieks and rolls upon the ground; for months afterward, when water touches the stung part, great agony ensues.

Dogs when stung rush about with piteous whines biting pieces of fiesh from the place that has been stung.—From Philadelphia Bulletin. Wednesday at 11 A. C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will deliver an ora-tion before the literary societies. At 8 P. M. Judge William Hodges Mann will

SAFE BLOWN FIFTEEN FEET THROUGH WALL

Remarkable Feature of a Large Fire in Suf-

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SUFFOLK, VA., May 25 .- Fire about 1 o'clock, this morning burned the stores o'clock this morning burned the stores of Whitfield & Bros., James B. Saunders and James Valden, on Main Breet, extended. The total loss is $5,700, with $3,900 insurance.

Whitfield & Bros. are the principal losers, the building being worth $2,500 the stock $5,000.

The office of the Standard Pennut Company and a storage house of the Nansemond Truck Package Company took first repeatedly, but were saved. The most peculiar feature of the fire is that an promase in the store of Whitfield Bros, was blown entirely through, and fifteen feet beyond the walls of the building.

One theory is that burgiars were seeking to crack the safe and used an overcharge of some explosive. Two distinct explosions were heard. The powder keg was not sitting near the safe. The safe was not warm when spectators arrived.

Be Splendid Affair.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., May 25.—The finals attending the closing of the two hundred and ninth session of William and Mary College promise to be the most brilliant and successful in years. From time immemorial William and Mary has been noted for the galety and splendor of its final week, but if present prospects are interpreted aright, the exercises this year will surpass all preceding ones in both respects. The exercises will begin June 9th, and will last until the 14th. During that time the town will be through with visitors from far and near. Germans, receptions, and, in fact, order of the day. Each of the fraterni ties will give a german, and these will be largely attended by visitors from Richmond, Norfolk and other nearby cities and towns. The baccalaureate so, will be DETROIT, May 25.—Miss Emma Goldman, America's best-known woman anarchist, is married, and the bridegroom is Alexander Berkman, the noted "Red." who has just been released from the Allegheny, Penn., penitentiary, after serving fourteen years for his attempt to assassinate Henry C. Frick, the steel man, during the Homestead strike.

When Berkman was released he came immediately to Detroit. Miss Goldman had preceded him here, arriving the day previous. She met him at the depot on his arrival and the greeting was an affectionate one, the pair kissing each other several times.

As the idea of a marrige by legal forms is repugnant to all anarchists, they had no civil or religious ceremony, but were united according to their own tenets at the home of Carl Nold, an anarchist and their friend, who himself served five years in prison for compiletity in the plot to assassinate Frick.

The newly wedded pair left Detroit for Chicago, They will go from there to New York, where they will make their home.

Miss Emma Goldman came to this civy. She dropped her husband's rich town in Russia, where her fathor was a tailor. She went to Rochester, N. Y. and was married to a man named Greenbaum. Then she met Louis Bernstein, an anarchist, who brought her to this city. She dropped her husband's name and became an advicate of anarchy in its most radical forms. She joined in its most radical forms. She join
